COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CUBRESPONDENCE At Front and Locust streets is a stand owned by J. H. Long, who deals in apples, potatoes, tobacco, cigars, candies, etc. Last night thieves effected a sucessful entrance into the watch house at this stand and made off with a lot of cigars and tobacco. Special officer Henry Rodenhauser somewhow got wind of what was going on, and arrived at the stand a minute or two after the thieves had taken their departure. He immediately started in pursuit and overtook them on South Front street, where, after a sharp tussle, he captured the fellow with the booty, the other making his escape. Rodenhauser confined his prisoner in the borough lock up for the night, first relieving him of the surreptitiously obtained articles in his possession. The officer says the prisoner persisted in showing fight, and that he was compelled to knock him down two or three times before he could be brought to reason The Our Boys baseball club, of Columbia, played the Atlantic, of York, at the latter place yesterday afternoou and in a hotly and very evenly contested game came out the victors, the score standing 10 to 9. The Our Boys have been very successful this year.

BOLD ROBBERIES.

Sneak Threves About-Valuables Stoleu. Yesterday we reported the particulars of the robbery at Schoenberger's hotel which took place the evening previous. To-day we have to record a still more extensive robbery perpetrated at the residence of C. Widmyer, corner South Duke and East King streets. Between 3 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a thief or thieves en-tered the residence by the front door on Duke street, and ascending to the third story ransacked drawers and boxes and stole the following described articles: One gold watch and a gold charm, enameled in black, representing a satchel; two gold watch chains, with black guard and locket attached; a small mahogan; box containing the following among other articles-three finger rings, one of them an amethyst and one with the name of 'Dan" on top and inside the words with three garnets; small child's ring with "Harry" engraved upon it; child's gold armlets; large gold medallion with miniatures of Mr. and Mrs. Widmyer, and marked "C. H. W.;" four pairs of ear-rings, one of which was coral, another cameo, another mosaic, and the other gold balls, and one odd car-ring; a set of gold spiral-wire shirt studs; a gentleman's gold scarf slide: a pair of broken hand bracepair being solid and of oval pattern; a child's whistle with pearl mouth-piece and silver bells; a package of letters, an old purse and two old diaries; two gold chain one of which was enameled black. The following articles not in the mahogany box, but lying in various parts of the rooms were also stolen from the third story. Two pairs buttons, morocco card cases, one morocco pocket book, containing a two dollar note and three silver dollars, a bead purse containing small change, two needle books, a coral breastpin, round in shape, with pendants, a long silver pin with fan on top, ter lodge No. 67, I. chiefs, gloves, bows for the head, a small purse containing a $5 bill and a half-cent From the third story the thief appears to have descended to the second story, from one of the back rooms of which was stolen half a dozen solid silver table spoons, half a dozen solid silver teaspoons, a pair of silver butter knives, a pair of silver salt spoons, a silver mustard spoon, and perhaps few other articles. The value of the property stolen can scarcely be estimated, as many of the articles were presents and keepsakes and were held far above their commercial value. They were worth perhaps $300 or $400, and could not be replaced for a much larger sum. The identity of the thief or thieves has not yet been fixed. A woman of medium size, dressed in dark clothes and wearing a black bonnet. was seen by Mrs. Edw. H. will be $2.58. THIRD EDITION.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 8, 1880.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.-For the Middle states clear weather during the rest of Friday, northeast to southeast winds, falling barometer and stationary or slight rise in temperature, followed to-night with threatening weather and rain in the southern portion.

PERILS OF THE RAIL.

Fatal Accident at Littleton, Mass. Boston, Oct. 8.-The through Western express train for Boston, on the Fitchburg railroad, met with an accident at Littleton, Mass., last night, by which two per sons were killed and several injured. While rounding a curve the two rear cars became detached, were derailed, and ran into some freight cars on a side track. Enoch Varney, master car builder of the road, and Mr. Falconer, of Ayer Junction. were crushed terribly and died almost instantly.

Eight or ten were injured more or less, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Tompkins, of Charlestown, who are both so badly hurt that they cannot be removed from Littleton. Injured on the Switch Back.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Oct. 8.—Christian Bosche, the oldest employee of the Switchback railroad, has had one leg cut off and received probably fatal injuries by being run over by a truck.

THE TURKISH TROUBLES.

A Reminder From Blamarck's Organ. LONDON, Oct. 3.-The North German Gazette, Prince Bismarck's organ, considers that, as in quarters an execution against Turkey is advocated, it is not in opportune to reprint protocol 18 of the Berlin congress. The protocol shows that the congress rejected both the Russian proposal and the Austrian amendment respecting the control and supervision of the execution of the treaty of Berlin, and the Turkish plenipotentiary declared that the Porte was ready to carry the treaty but declined to submit to any control.

Grant's Gabble. CHICAGO, Oct. 8 .- At an interview with a reporter of the News, this morning, General Grant said that he had not received any communication from General Hancock in reference to the recently published Fowler interview, and when asked if he expected such a communication, he said it was not impossible that he should hear from Gen. Hancock, but he did not expect to before leaving Chicago. Gen. Grant leaves here at 3 o'clock this afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Grant, for New York via Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne railroad, and will go

The Lottery War. Washington, Oct. 8.—In regard to the status of the lottery cases pending before the United States supreme court a conference was held with the attorney-general to-day, and it was agreed that in consequence of the resignation of Postmaster General Key, against whom the proceed ings were originally instituted by the lottery people, the case will be dismissed by

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

A Fatal Accident and a Fight. DENUER, Col., Oct. 8 .- On an excur-57% 57% 57% sion train last night, earrying the Boys in 14% 14% Blue, Jacob Good had his neck broken by coming in contact with a freight car while thrusting his head out of a car window. Some of the party discharged revolvers in 15% 15% discriminately and a colored man was wounded in the leg.

Fires in Manning, S. C. CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 8.-A letter from Manning, S. C., says: Fire yesterday moning destroyed the general store of M. Levy, with the entire stock; loss about $35,000. The store of A. Weinberg was also burned; loss unknown. The cause of the fire was incendiarism.

Men Crushed to Jelly. WATERBURY, Conn., Oct. 8 .- Two laborers named Thomas Kilroe and M. Nicol were killed here this morning by the cav ing in of a bank. Kilroe's head was smashed to a jelly, and Nicel's body was frightfully mangled.

Capture of a Forger. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8 .- J. L. Evans who arrived here from Australia yesterday. was immediately arrested for forgery to the amount of eight hundred pounds. The sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds was recovered from him.

Fatal Quarrel of Sallors. QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 8.—The sailors from the ship Bosphorus lying off foundry wharf quarrelled last night. One of them drew a knife and stabbed the other to the heart killing him instantly. The murderer was BAILEY, BANKS & BIDDLE, arrested.

Dissipation and Death. WILKESBAERE, Pa., Oct. 8.-Michael McCasey was found lying at the foot of the cellar stairs in A. Krothe's saloon this morning. He died shortly after. His death was the result of an accident, as he was a dissipated man.

Escaped and at Large. SALEM, Mass., Oct. 8.—Charles F. Free. man, the Pocasset child murderer, escaped from the Danvers insane hospital this morning and is at large.
